Last season, Sun Mountain released a line of college-logoed golf bags of which any university alumnus would be proud. This year, the company is proud to announce an update to the line.

Sun Mountain has agreements in place with more than 40 NCAA colleges and universities to feature their mascot logo on golf bags.

Retailing at $229 for a stand bag and $239 for the larger cart bag, each Sun Mountain bag features a 14-way individual club divider system, plenty of pocket storage and an emphasis on practicality.

“In the past, golfers had to pick either a top quality golf bag or a golf bag in their college colors,” explained Sun Mountain President Ed Kowachek. “Now folks can have it all – quality, performance, cutting-edge design and their college colors.”
